Michael Carr serves as the Director of Tax Resolution Services at Trout CPA, leading a dedicated team of CPAs focused on helping clients navigate the complexities of tax notices from various authorities.

Taxpayers often receive intimidating and confusing notices demanding additional payments for taxes, interest, and penalties. Michael and his team are committed to providing swift resolutions, ensuring clients only pay the accurate amount owed. They employ various strategies, including letter writing, referencing the Internal Revenue Code or manual, engaging in extensive phone calls with taxing authorities, and representing clients in IRS audits.

Michael holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Accounting and Finance and a minor in Economics from Shippensburg University.

In addition to his role in tax resolution services, Michael handles all facets of tax planning and preparation and business consulting services. His involvement in the firm's Tax Services Committee showcases his proficiency in assisting clients in navigating the complexities of multiple state authorities.

Outside of his professional commitments, Michael enjoys spending quality time with his family and reading. Michael resides in Lancaster County with his wife and son.
